Medicare Supplement insurance that's got you covered

Health care costs can put a strain on your budget, even if you have Medicare Parts A and B. But enrolling in a Medicare Supplement insurance plan offered by Medico[®] Insurance Company can help you pay for out-of-pocket expenses not covered by Medicare, such as coinsurance, copayments, and deductibles. Plus, Medicare beneficiaries can enroll in a Medicare Supplement product at any time of the year.¹

Quality plans with value built in

When you purchase a Medico Medicare Supplement insurance plan, you're getting an affordable premium with:

Preferred rates for eligible non-tobacco users²

Savings when you opt for automatic bank withdrawals from your checking or savings account

A premium rate discount if you live with another person who is age 50 or older, even if they don't have coverage with us

1. If you are outside your open enrollment or guaranteed issue period, you are required to complete an enrollment application and will be subject to underwriting.
 2. Tobacco use will not be a deciding factor for preferred rates if you are in your open enrollment or guaranteed issue period.
