Applicant Certification

I hereby apply to Medico Insurance Company (the Company) for a Dental or Dental, Vision and Hearing Insurance Policy to be issued solely and entirely in reliance on my answers. The answers, which I adopt as my own, are true, full and complete and have been accurately recorded. Within sixty days of receipt of your application in our home office, Medico Insurance Company will notify you as to whether or not your application has been approved or provide you with a reason for a delay in the acceptance or rejection of your application. I agree that, except as provided in the Receipt for Initial Premium, no insurance will take effect unless the full first premium is paid and the policy is delivered and accepted by me. I have received the Outline of Coverage for the policy (in states where required by law).

No portion of the premium will be paid, during the period the policy is in force, by or on behalf of a third party (not to include an Immediate Family member), either directly, or through wage adjustments or other means of reimbursement.

CAUTION: If your answers on this application are incorrect or untrue, the Company may have the right to deny benefits or if the misrepresentation was material to our acceptance of the risk, rescind your policy.

I am applying for this Dental or Dental, Vision and Hearing Insurance policy. The policy provides dental or dental, vision and hearing benefits only. Review your policy carefully.

Important Notice to Persons on Medicare

This Insurance Duplicates Some Medicare Benefits

This is not Medicare Supplement Insurance

The insurance provides limited benefits if you meet the conditions listed in the policy. It does not pay your Medicare deductibles or coinsurance and is not a substitute for Medicare Supplement insurance.

This insurance duplicates Medicare benefits when it pays:

- the benefits stated in the policy and coverage for the same event is provided by Medicare.

Medicare generally pays for most or all of these expenses.

Medicare pays extensive benefits for medically necessary services regardless of the reason you need them. These include:

- Hospitalization
- Physician services
- Hospice
- Outpatient prescription drugs if you are enrolled in Medicare Part D
- Other approved items and services

Before You Buy This Insurance

✓ Check the coverage in all health insurance policies you already have.

✓ For more information about Medicare and Medicare Supplement insurance, review the Guide to Health Insurance for People with Medicare, available from the insurance company.

✓ For help in understanding your health insurance, contact the Missouri Department of Insurance, Financial Institutions and Professional Registration (1-800-726-7390) or C.L.A.I.M. (Community Leaders Assisting the Insured of Missouri) at 1-800-390-3330.

RATE GUIDE

Premium Withdrawal

If the applicant chooses the Automatic Bank Withdrawal or Credit Card method of payment and the application is submitted without any premium, the initial premium will be drafted from the Insured's account on the Policy/Certificate Date (effective date of coverage).

Note: Unless a future Effective Date is requested, the premium will be drawn as soon as the policy/certificate is issued. Please make sure the applicant is aware of this.

Policy/Certificate Effective Date

Requested Effective Date must be after the application date. If no Effective Date is requested, the Effective Date will be the day the application is approved by our Underwriting Department.

Please review the premium differences in the rates shown, as modal factors vary based on payment methods and frequency of payments.

Note: Enrollments using a credit or debit card for premium payments must be submitted electronically. Paper applications cannot contain credit or debit card information.

Notice of Privacy Practices for American Enterprise Group Affiliated Covered Entity

MEDICAL

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

This Notice of Privacy Practices covers an affiliated covered entity. When the notice refers to "we," "our," or "us," it is referring to the following affiliated entities: American Republic Insurance Company, Medico Insurance Company, Medico Life and Health Insurance Company, American Republic Corp Insurance Company, and Medico Corp Life Insurance Company. For purposes of complying with the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA) as amended by the Health Information Technology for Economic and Clinical Health Act (HITECH), the combined companies listed are designated as a single covered entity. The single covered entity shall be known as the "American Enterprise Group ACE." This designation may be amended from time to time to add new covered entities that are under common control and ownership with the American Enterprise Group ACE.

We respect the confidentiality of your health information and will protect your information in a responsible and professional manner. We are required by law to maintain the privacy of your health information and to send you this notice. This notice explains how we use information about you and when we can share that information with others. It also informs you of your rights with respect to your health information and how you can exercise those rights.

When we talk about "information" or "health information" in this notice we mean individually identifiable health information, as defined by HIPAA. Individually identifiable health information is health information that:

- Is created or received by the American Enterprise Group ACE's designated health care components;
- Relates to the past, present, or future physical or mental health condition of an individual, the provision of health care to an individual, or the past, present, or future payment for the provision of health care to an individual; and
- Identifies the individual, or with respect to which there is a reasonable basis to believe the information can be used to identify the individual.

How We Use or Share Information

Subject to state and federal laws, we are permitted to use and/or share your information without your authorization in certain circumstances, such as:

- To use or disclose the information for payment purposes. For example, we may use the information to help pay medical bills that have been submitted to us by doctors and hospitals for payment or to contact your doctor to obtain medical records in order to make claim payment decisions.
- To use or disclose the information to perform health care operations. For example, we may use the information for activities relating to underwriting; customer service; legal services; and auditing functions, including fraud and abuse detection and compliance programs. We will not use or disclose genetic information, including family history, for underwriting purposes.
- To use or disclose your information to provide you with information about health related benefits and services that you may be interested in. We will not share your information with or sell it to telemarketing agencies or other agencies that market products other than those products provided or administered by the American Enterprise Group ACE or its business associates without your authorization.
- If you are available and do not object, we may disclose information to a member of your family, a friend, or other person you identify who is involved in your health care or the payment of a claim. If you are unavailable, incapacitated, or facing an emergency medical situation, and we determine that a limited disclosure is in your best interest, we may share limited information with such persons.
- To disclose information to a disaster relief organization in order for the organization to communicate with a family member or other person involved in your care.

State and federal laws may require or permit us to release your information to others without your authorization, such as:

- To use and disclose information to the extent required to comply with the law.
- To report information to state and federal agencies that regulate us, such as the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services and the Iowa Insurance Division.
- To share information for public health activities.
- To use or disclose information to avert a serious health or safety threat.
- To share information with a health oversight agency for certain oversight activities authorized by law such as audits, inspections, licensure, and disciplinary actions.
- To disclose information in the course of a judicial or administrative proceeding, such as pursuant to a subpoena.
- To report information for law enforcement purposes.

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES—MEDICAL (continued)

In the event that an applicable law prohibits or materially limits one of the uses or disclosures of information described above, we will restrict the use or disclosure in accordance with the more stringent law. If one of the above reasons for a use or disclosure does not apply, we must get your written permission, in the form of an authorization, to use or disclose your information. In any case, we must obtain authorization for the use and disclosure of psychotherapy notes. If you give us written permission and change your mind you may revoke your authorization at any time except to the extent that we have taken action in reliance on the authorization or, if the authorization was obtained as a condition of obtaining insurance coverage, other law provides us with the right to contest a claim under the policy or the policy itself.

What Are Your Rights?

The following are your rights with respect to your information. If you would like to exercise the following rights, please contact our Customer Care Center. Contact information for our Customer Care Center is located at the end of this Notice.

- You have the right to be notified in the event there is a breach of your health information.
- You have the right to ask us to restrict: (a) how we use or disclose your information for payment or health care operations; (b) information that we have been asked to give to family members or to others who are involved in your health care or payment for your health care; and (c) uses and disclosures for disaster relief purposes. Please note that while we will try to accommodate reasonable requests, we are not required to agree to these restrictions.
- You have the right to request confidential communications of information. For example, if you believe that you would be harmed if we send your information to your current mailing address (for example, in situations involving domestic disputes or violence), you can ask us to send the information by alternative means (for example, by fax) or to an alternative address. We will accommodate your reasonable requests as explained above.
- You have the right to copy and inspect certain components of your information that we maintain. All requests for access must be made in writing and signed by you or your representative. Access request forms are available from our Customer Care Center at the address below. We may charge you a fee for copying and postage.
- You have the right to request that certain components of your information be amended to correct an error or omission. We are not obligated to make all requested amendments but will give each request careful consideration. All amendment requests must be in writing, signed by you or your representative, and must state the reasons for the requested amendment. Amendment request forms are available from our Customer Care Center.
- You have the right to receive an accounting of certain disclosures of your information. Accounting request forms are available from our Customer Care Center at the address below. The first accounting in any 12-month period is free; however, we may charge you a fee for each subsequent accounting you request in the same 12-month period. Please note that we are not required to release:
  - Any information collected prior to April 14, 2003.
  - Information disclosed or used for treatment, payment, and/or health care operations purposes.
  - Information disclosed to you or pursuant to your authorization.
  - Information that is incidental to a use or disclosure otherwise permitted.
  - Information disclosed for a facility's directory or to person involved in your care or other notification purposes.
  - Information disclosed for national security or intelligence purposes.
  - Information disclosed to correctional institutions, law enforcement officials, or health oversight agencies.
  - Information that was disclosed or used as part of a limited data set for research, public health, or health care operations purposes.

Exercising Your Rights

You have a right to receive a copy of this notice upon request at any time. We are required to abide by the terms of this notice. Should any of our privacy practices change, we reserve the right to change the terms of this notice and to make the new notice effective for all protected health information we maintain. Once revised, we will provide the new notice to you by mail. If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a complaint with us by contacting our Customer Care Center. You may also send a written complaint to the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. We will not take any action against you for filing a complaint.

Notice of Privacy Practices for American Enterprise Group Companies

FINANCIAL

THIS NOTICE APPLIES TO ALL PROSPECTS, APPLICANTS, CUSTOMERS AND FORMER CUSTOMERS WHO HAVE INQUIRED ABOUT OR PURCHASED INSURANCE PRODUCTS USED PRIMARILY FOR PERSONAL, FAMILY OR HOUSEHOLD PURPOSES.

At AmericanEnterprise Group Companies, including but not limited to American Republic Insurance Company, American Republic Corp Insurance Company, Medico Insurance Company, Medico Life and Health Insurance Company, and Medico Corp Life Insurance Company, ("Company") we keep your personal information confidential and share it only in a responsible manner as necessary to provide and service the products you purchase from us or to offer you additional products.

What Information Do We Collect?

To provide and administer products and services, we must refer to relevant personal information that can be identified to you or your household and that may not be available in public records ("nonpublic personal information"). We collect only the following information required to conduct business:

- Identity information received from your application, such as name, address, social security number, and age.
- Information about your transactions with us, including your identification and policy number(s), the type of products you buy, the premiums you pay, and how you purchased your coverage.
- Information received from a consumer reporting or credit agency or from public records (such as your driving record) as needed by our insurance underwriting practices.
- Information received from a third-party agency, such as consumer purchasing or census data.
- Information received from service providers regarding treatment of health conditions and payment for that treatment.

What Information Do We Share With Others?

To help us provide you with the best possible products and services, we maintain strong relationships with business associates. In the course of conducting business and as permitted or required by law, we may share any of the listed nonpublic personal information with our business associates for the following purposes:

- To process your application and issue your policy.
- To pay your claims.
- To make any policy changes you may request.
- To offer you additional opportunities to improve your financial security.

We may also disclose relevant portions of the information we collect, as described above, to companies that perform services on our behalf or with whom we have joint marketing agreements. We will not, however, disclose your health information for marketing purposes.

Other than the disclosures listed above, we do not release your information to nonaffiliated third parties. We will not for any reason share your information with or sell it to telemarketing agencies or other agencies that market products other than those products provided or administered by the Company or its business associates. Our business associates are bound by the same restrictions on the release and use of such information as the Company. Any future alliances with business associates which include personal information sharing will follow the same policy.

Fair Credit Reporting Act

We do not disclose information subject to the Fair Credit Reporting Act except as permitted or required by law. To the extent that we decide in the future to make any disclosures of your nonpublic personal financial information that are subject to the Act, we will follow the necessary requirements of the Act including providing you with the opportunity to restrict our ability to disclose information.

How Do We Protect Your Information?

We maintain appropriate physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to ensure the confidentiality of your nonpublic personal information. We follow security standards and procedures to help prevent unauthorized access to personal information. Only employees who need the information we collect from or about you to provide products or services to you may access that information. Employees are required to comply with our established policies.

What About Former Customers?

We do not disclose information about former customers unless permitted or required by law.

How Can You Correct Inaccurate Information?

We want to keep our records of your information accurate. If you discover inaccuracies in any communications from us, please call customer service at the number listed on your policy or certificate materials. We will respond promptly when we learn corrections are needed.
